

2010 Presbyterian Writers Conference

Sponsored by the Presbyterian Writers Guild (www.presbywriters.org)

WHAT: Two keynotes, 20 breakout sessions, a panel discussion on the writing life, fellowship with other writers, and a comedy-and-concert bonus

WHEN: Wednesday and Thursday, April 28-29, 2010

WHERE: Scarritt-Bennett Center ~ 1008 19th Avenue, South ~ Nashville, TN 37212-2126 (www.scarrittbennett.org)

CONFERENCE FEE: For standard registrations, the cost is $210. For members of the Presbyterian Writers Guild, the cost is $189. (For information about how to join the PWG, visit www.presbywriters.org.) The conference fee does not include the cost of meals or lodging. A limited number of partial scholarships are available.

LODGING/MEALS: Lodging and meals are available at the Scarritt-Bennett Center. Information and costs are at the online registration site.

TO REGISTER: Register online at <http://www.regonline.com/Checkin.asp?EventId=790785>

WHAT TO BRING: You might want to bring some of your works in progress. Many people bring laptop computers with them, but this is not required. If you plan to purchase books, be prepared with cash, checks, VISA, or MasterCard.

WHAT TO WEAR: Dress comfortably. Casual clothing is fine.

BOOKSTORE: A variety of writing resources, as well as books authored by faculty members and conferees, will be available for purchase at the conference. You may bring books you have authored to consign to the bookstore. The Presbyterian Writers Guild will retain 15% commission of sales. Each item must be clearly priced with no quantity pricing. See the worker at the registration table to consign in items and unconsign them before leaving.

ONE-ON-ONE APPOINTMENTS: Faculty members will be available throughout the day for a limited number of fifteen-minute one-on-one appointments. Appointments are limited to one per registrant, subject to availability.
